Manx Folk Dance Society visit to Ladies' Mockbeggar Morris Side of Clog Dancers, Wirral, Friday 30th April to Monday 3rd May 2010

Taking a break from their fund raising activities, to raise money to hold an International Dance Festival on the Isle of Man during August next year, on the evening of Friday 30th April, 13 members of the Manx Folk Dance Society travelled to Liverpool by sea or air, to be met by some of their hosts from the Ladies' Mockbeggar Morris Side of Clog Dancers, before being taken for a meal at the Farmers Arms, Frankby.

At 4.45am on Saturday 1st May, the now 18 members of the Manx Folk Dance Society (Norma & Dave joined them with their camper van, and the Evans family arrived in the early hours from the late night sailing to Heysham) gathered at Thor's Stone, Thurstaston Hill, with the Mersey Morris Men and the Mockbeggar dancers to dance and see-in the May Day dawn. Luckily the weather was kind (although a little chilly) and there was a wonderful sunrise!

At 6.30am a welcome breakfast was provided at GJ's Coffee Shop at Thurstaston Visitors Centre.

After a quick visit back to their hosts' houses, the 3 groups went to dance at 10.30am for some of the children at Claire House Children's Hospice, Clatterbridge Hospital. They danced outside and a couple of the visiting siblings were enticed in to join the Morris Men.

It was then on to Birkenhead Park, which was celebrating the reopening of the Main Gates. The 3 Groups danced once before lunch and again afterward to an appreciative audience by Main Gates and briefly outside the Cafe after their picnic lunch at Cafe. Then it was time to go home and relax for a short time before attending an informal Ceilidh Evening in Heswall. The Manx Dancers and Musicians were each given a mug celebrating the visit to Mockbeggar Clog Dancers for the May Weekend and they reciprocated with a DVD and IOM Book featuring a photograph of the Manx Folk Dance Society. Luckily the only rain came when they were dancing INSIDE the Hall!!

After a good night's rest everyone met at the Boat Museum, Ellesmere Port at 11am on Sunday 2nd May, to dance by the Canal - unfortunately the weather was cold and grey, with a biting NE wind, so after frequent breaks to get warm again, the dancers moved in to the education room for a wonderful picnic lunch, when small gift were presented to the Manx Folk Dance Society musicians in appreciation from the dancers - including a small 'shivering penguin' each as a reminder of the day!! It was decided to continue the dancing inside - to a much bigger - and warmer!-

audience. The displays finished with the Manx dancers performing the 'train dance' when all their dancers, as well as the dancers from the other 2 groups joining them on the "train" for the final bow!! Then it was home for a meal before meeting later at the White Lion Pub in West Kirby for a final full get-together.

Monday 3rd May was free for shopping and or sightseeing, although some people followed the Mersey Morris Men, who were dancing at The White Lion, Childer Thornton, then at The Nag's Head, Willaston and finishing at The Pollard Inn, Willaston. Most of the Manx Folk Dance Society then left by sea or air for home - tired but happy after a very enjoyable weekend with long established dancing friends. Joan Cowell

Perree Bane's dancers fly out to Steenvoorde in spite of ash-clouds!
John Dowling reports...

Held in the small Southern Flanders town of Steenvoorde, the Inter-Celtic festival to which Perree Bane was invited was a great success.

The whole issue was in flux until late in the week, when the ash-cloud reduced enough to allow the 'planes to fly; the "roadies" of John and Jenny Dowling and Brian Caine had already left with the van full of costumes etc. However, all arrived safely, and were whisked away by their hosts to be quite royally entertained, a pattern that continued throughout the weekend.

Our first task was a dance workshop with some enthusiastic participants, then some dancing in the square (it was hot!), followed by a grand evening concert in the local sports hall, seating more than 1200 people! Carol's wizardry produced a 26-minute choreographed display that brought sustained applause; as usual, after all the birth-pangs and practices on Vicki's and John's dance-floor (!), it went extremely well on the night.

Sunday morning dawned with more dancing in the Square, then all the groups were invited to a reception with Monsieur Le Maire, and gifts were exchanged; each group did an impromptu dance and there were snacks and drinks. We were fed and watered extremely well, with free beer tokens and sumptuous buffets, champagne flowing like water at the house of one of our hosts!

Lunch, then the Grand Parade; the local Giants came out at the head, and there were some remarkable participants - superb Belgian pipe bands, the local motorcycle club doing a William Wallace complete with catapult, the "Little people of the Forest" resplendent in fluorescent green tights and big curly wigs (we never did find out what they were all about) and the Widders Border Morris doing what they do best with big sticks.

We already knew the route was about 2 miles around the town, so said to the organizers we'd dance whenever there was a crowd, as NO-ONE can dance for 2 miles. However, thousands of people came into town for the jollifications, and so there were crowds nearly all the way round. I don't know how many dances we did, but it was a lot, Jenny as flag-holder spelling one or two of the ladies who wilted a little in the heat.

Came the main square and the crowds were 6-deep, so the last reserves were dredged up for a final Eunysagh Vona and finally we could sit down for a cool (excellent Belgian) beer in the hall in town, a last superb buffet and winding down after a busy weekend, chatting with other group members and being invited by the Widders to their festival next year. Costumes packed away in the van, a last farewell and the van set off for Dunkerque the next morning, the aeronauts having already left very early for Brussels airport. A wonderful festival, well-organised by Lucie and her team and we were overwhelmed by the generous hospitality of our French hosts. Thanks to Tom, Paul, Caz and Brian who did a sterling job for us as musicians. Would we go again? D'accord!

CRUINNAGHT AEG SECONDARY GROUPS CONCERT-COMPETITIONS A GREAT SUCCESS!

Just some of the photos from the two excellent evenings of music and dance which started the Cruinnacht Aeg youth competitions off so well last month. Organised by Fiona McArdle for the Dept of Education & Children, trophies were provided by MNH and prize money by MHF. Kensington Road Youth Centre proved a wonderful venue and David Kilgallon and Ruth Blindell great adjudicators. Thanks go to Fiona McArdle for all of her work in organising the competitions. Cruinnacht Aeg will continue through late June and July. Email: fmcardle\(AT\)manx.net for more details.

for them. As you may imagine this is a costly undertaking and MFDS are very busy fund raising at the moment. With the help of the Manx Heritage Foundation they have almost raised half of the monies they need - but there is still along way to go!

If you feel you would like to support their venture financially in some way - by making a donation (no matter how small), organising a fund raising event for them or by supporting MFDS Stalls, Coffee Mornings etc., the Manx Folk Dance Society WOULD BE VERY GRATEFUL!!
